

FOR RELEASE ON March 16, 2022

2022 Municipal Elections – Candidate Information Sessions MIDDLESEX COUNTY

Thinking about running for your local council? Candidate information sessions are available to those considering running for the 2022 municipal elections.

A presentation from the Ministry of Municipal Affairs organized by local clerks of Middlesex County on Monday, April 4, 2022, will highlight what candidates should know about the Municipal Elections Act, including campaign finances, and highlight the roles and responsibilities of council and council members.

This presentation is free to attend and is being held virtually via Zoom, from 5:00 - 7:00 pm. Those interested can register using this zoom meeting registration link www.thamescentre.on.ca/candidate.

Should you have any questions please contact the Clerk's Department within your respective Municipality.

Remember, the next municipal election will be held Monday, October 24, 2022. Candidates will be able to file nomination papers from Monday, May 2, 2022 up until 2 p.m. on Friday, August 19, 2022.

Voting for the 2022 municipal elections will once again be conducted through telephone and internet voting in Adelaide Metcalfe, Lucan Biddulph, Middlesex Centre, North Middlesex, Southwest Middlesex and Thames Centre.
